DOT and Non-DOT Employer DER & Supervisors

Drug and Alcohol Signs & Symptoms Training Course for calling Reasonable Suspicion Testing

Jan Kornmann, KorManagement Services, LLC

REASONABLE SUSPICION/SIGNS & SYMPTOMS TRAINING – This session will provide DOT and Non-DOT required supervisor drug and alcohol training. This training will qualify supervisors to make reasonable suspicion determinations and will meet all DOT Supervisor-Training Requirements. Montana State Law requires this training annually. This seminar is suggested for all DOT and Non-DOT Employers and Supervisors who have a drug and alcohol program in place. You will receive your required certificate after completing this session.

DER (DESIGNATED EMPLOYER REPRESENTATIVE) TRAINING - THIS CLASS IS A MUST FOR ANY DER (A DER is the person handling your companies drug and alcohol program.) As a DER, there are many perplexing situations you handle for your company. This course covers diligence, new hiring procedures, adulteration/substitution and the positive drug user. We will also cover Post Accident Testing, Return to Duty, and Follow-Up Testing using a qualified DOT Certified SAP. There will also be some discussion on the interaction between the MRO (Medical Review Officer) and DER. Jan will share valuable information to the business owner and cover the latest DOT 49 CFR Part 40 regulations regarding Drug and Alcohol testing. Attendees will be provided suggestions and materials to help them comply with the regulations.
